

Errata

The last issue of the IALL Journal inadvertently contained several errors.

The feature article "Copyright and the Learning Center: Issues and Resources" omitted an acknowledgement contained in the original module. The "Copyright" module contained contributions from Irene Starr (University of Massachusetts), Bruce Parkhurst (Boston University), and Christina Powell (University of Michigan). Additionally, Lynn Crandall works at the University of Michigan. The Journal apologizes for these omissions and errors.
