PRACTICES AND PRODUCTS FOR TODAY'S LANGUAGE LEARNING

SOMETHING ABOUT US:
Have You Heard? A Quality Commercial Publisher Is Looking for You!  Page 2

J.E.T.T. INTERVIEWS the Out-Going President of the International Association for Learning Laboratories, Glyn Holmes  Page 5

WRITER'S MARKET:
Submission Guidelines for J.E.T.T. Contributors  Page 8

Ask the Technician  Page 13

J.E.T.T. UPDATE:
The Sony 5510 Mark II . . .  Page 15

J.E.T.T. CLASSIFIED:
Technology and Foreign Languages: A Brief Overview  Page 18
Walter Tuman Louisiana State University  Page 17

Establishing a CALL Lab in an ESL Program  Page 22
Herbert Pierson The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Feature
Educational Media's SStar System: Does It Meet Your Teaching Objectives?

News and Views From
• Manufacturer
• Dealers
• Endusers

Third in a Series on State-of-the-Art Learning Laboratories  Page 27

COMING IN THE NEXT ISSUE...
Language Learning Print/Electronic Media from Heinle and Heinle

TOOLS OF THE TRADE:
Don't Blame the Technology: A Checklist for Planning Technology-Assisted Lessons  Page 40
Lee Troup...Honda of America
Debra Deane...University of Akron
Jeff Magoto...Ohio University

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Tandberg Educational and Pioneer Communications Cordially Invite You to Participate in the First Satellite Teleconference Dedicated to the Use of Technology in Modern Language Instruction  Page 45

J.E.T.T. SPOTLIGHT:
SOFTWARE:  Page 47
COMpress's English as a Second Language

BOOKS:
Rendez-vous—An Invitation to French  Page 50
Applications of Technology: Planning and Using Language Learning Centers
Culture Bound: Bridging the Gap in Language Teaching

EDITOR'S FOCUS:  Page 58
A Cornucopia of Choices with a Lack of Options
Reader's Feedback  Page 62

UPCOMING EVENTS:  Page 64
Call for Papers
Language Jobs in Government
NFLC Fellowships
Japanese Database
CALICO Symposium
Northeast Conference 1988
Jobs for U.S. Citizens in USSR
Syntax in the Schools
French TV Via Satellite